Declare Tim Powers Tim Powers' Declare is about this "concealed war" where Russia, the UK, Germany and France engage in using supernatural weapons in addition to conventional ones during the Second World War and continues into the 60s Cold War between the East and the West. I love the idea of a secret layer to our reality that we don't know anything about. Declare by Tim Powers - Goodreads Tim Powers is a brilliant writer. Declare's occult subtext for the deeper Cold War is wonderfully original and brilliantly executed --William Gibson Dazzling - a tour de force, a brilliant blend of John Le Carre spy fiction with the otherworldly, packed with historical fact, dazzling flights of imagination, and wonderful suspense --Dean Koontz Declare: Amazon.co.uk: Tim Powers: 9781848874039: Books Declare audiobook written by Tim Powers. detailed, byzantine story of the cold war almost in the style of LeCarre', but with a supernatural angle that Smiley's creator wouldn't dare. But instead of the supernatural angle stopping the story dead in it's tracks it drives the tale forward in many ways. Powers' story is too complex to explain here simply. Declare by Tim Powers | Audiobook | Audible.com DECLARE is Tim Powers' take on a British, Le Carre style spy novel, with his own added supernatural twists. And as such, it's a resounding success.
